NOTICE

L. M. MURLIN

Real Estate for Sale or Exchange

Union Block, Rooms 10 and 11 CELINA, OHIO

13, 1917, aged 47 years, 1 month, and 7 days. Honest, true, useful and industrious, as his life told to all who knew him.

He was born near Bethel church, Union township, Mercer county, Ohio, and at a revival meeting held by Rev. Ritchie, in Neptune, when 18 years of age, he gave himself and his life to Jesus as was manifested by himself and father in the glory and praises they gave to Almighty God.

He united with the M. E. church and was a faithful member until called away by the Master. He was united in marriage to Maud Dutton in 1894, and in less than a year, in 1895, she departed this life. In 1897 he was married to Lina Keyser, and to this union were given six children, five of whom died in infancy, while the wife, daughter Ruth, twin brother, Oscar, and a large number of relatives and friends mourn the departure of one whose life always spoke in favor of Christianity. Good-bye brother—we hope to meet you on the other shore.

MONTEZUMA

A beautiful wedding occurred at this place Monday morning when Mary Patterson became the bride of Clarence Becker, of Coldwater. Both are popular and accomplished young people. May they live long and prosper.

The departure of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Becker, for their honeymoon caused no little excitement among their very attentive friends, who wished to bid them God speed. The happy couple escaped their pursuers at Coldwater, Ohio. But Montezuma girls are not to be out-done. After going to oug the C. N. passenger train, only to find their prey had again escaped them and taken the train at Rockford, for Van Wert, they decided that for once some one should "get ahead of Clarence" and as a result when the bride and groom arrived at the Van Wert depot they were greeted with a shower of Rice from the hands of their devoted friends from Montezuma.
